

Tulip FANFARE

Come April, the carefully orchestrated planting at Morton Hall Gardens delivers a harmonious display of glorious colour. But it's the tulips that really sing out...

WORDS BY PAULA McWATERS PHOTOGRAPHS BY CLIVE NICHOLS

Anne's 'assorted wonderfals' fill two large beds in the orchard

countryliving.com/uk

THE DETAILS

STYLE

Interconnecting spaces - formal gardens, a kitchen garden, Japanese-inspired woodland stroll garden and meadow

SEASONS OF INTEREST

All year, peaking in spring and summer

SIZE

8 acres (which includes 3 acres of meadowland)

SOIL

Heavy clay